ADULT PROGRAM

AUTHOR AND WRITER DUDLEY CLENDINEN TO BE THE FEATURED FOUR SEASONS AUTHOR SERIES SPEAKER

Tampa, FL – Author and writer Dudley Clendinen will be the featured speaker for the next Four Seasons Author Series luncheon at the University Club, 38th Floor 1, Tampa City Center in downtown Tampa on Monday, May 5 at noon.

Dudley Clendinen, former national correspondent and editorial writer for the New York Times, will discuss his new book, A Place Called Canterbury: Tales of the New Age in America. He used Tampa's Canterbury Towers on Bayshore Boulevard for his research on this thought-provoking book on how the oldest Americans are living with the reality of living longer.

Mr. Clendinen has written several books on various aspects of American culture. He lives in Baltimore, MD.

The Four Seasons Author Series is presented by the Friends of the Library of Tampa-Hillsborough County, Inc. The subscription series offers an annual quartet of literary lunches at which guest authors are invited to speak on a variety of subjects. Previous authors have included Hillary Hemingway (Hemingway in Cuba), Denise LeHane (Mystic River), Connie May Fowler (Before Women Had Wings) and Charles Shields (Mockingbird: A Portrait of Harper Lee).

Tickets are $25 and a subscription for four consecutive luncheons are $100. Proceeds benefit the Friends of the Library of Tampa-Hillsborough County, Inc., which is a not for profit organization with a 501 (3) (c) status. To reserve your seat for any of the luncheons, call the Friends office at (813) 273-3616.
